From the Great Pyramid to the Freedom Tower A Brief History of Western Architecture

Part 1: Architecture of the Ancient World: Egypt, Greece & Rome

Tuesday, May 22, 6-7 p.m.

Presented by: Paolo Di Gregorio

From the dawn of civilization, we have built great structures, and the physical legacies of the past are still with us today. This series of historical lectures by the "Artifactual Scholar" Paolo Di Gregorio will look at 3000 years of architecture and history in the western world.

Paolo Di Gregorio is an historian, archaeologist, and educator with a passion for telling the stories of our past. He is a visiting lecturer in the History Department at Bridgewater State University and an instructor in the Anthropology Department at Wheaton College.

This program supported in part by a grant from the Framingham Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency, and in part by the Friends of Callahan.
